

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3937 - SB 4030

February 12, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Juvenile Record Task Force submit any final recommendations to the General Assembly and the Governor by May 1, 2008 at which time the Task Force will sunset.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures - $3,300

Decrease Local Expenditures - $1,800

Assumptions:

- The Juvenile Records Task Force was created by Public Chapter 552 of the Public Acts of 2007.
- The travel reimbursement and meal allotment for the three juvenile judges and a juvenile clerk to attend four meetings was estimated to increase local government expenditures by $1,800.
- The per diem and mileage for three legislative members to attend four meetings was estimated to increase state expenditures by $3,276.
- There will not be a significant decrease in state or local expenditures for the administrative functions of the task force to cease.
